“From Death to Life”

Greetings church family!

By the time you read this newsletter, we will probably be smack in the middle of Holy Week. A year ago, we moved all worship online with hopes of “celebrating Easter together in-person” a few weeks afterward. A year ago! Well, that never happened as the pandemic proved more long-lived than we originally anticipated. We still won't quite be fully able to celebrate Easter “normally” this year. But we WILL be able to gather in-person, in addition to online, and there's a definite light at the end of the tunnel as more and more of us get vaccinated and as case numbers continue to decrease overall. By the way, if you haven't gotten your vaccine, I HIGHLY encourage you to do so when it's your turn. Having served in the military for nearly three decades now, my shot record is literally several pages long, so I had zero fear getting this vaccination. God has blessed us with many amazing scientific discoveries and vaccinations are certainly among them. The sooner most of us are immunized, the sooner we can get past social distancing and masking, which is what we all are so looking forward to doing. Our seniors have set a good example with over 70% already vaccinated!

This past year has been one filled with far too much death. It grieves me to no end that so many of them could have been prevented by simply loving our neighbor as much as ourselves. It also grieves me that Jesus was hung on a cross to die. Perhaps his untimely death could have been prevented too, if people would have truly listened, understood, and accepted his message of bold love for others. But we also know that Jesus willingly went to the cross to demonstrate that there are NO limits to his love for us and that death has no power over him and therefore no power over us. On Easter, Jesus overcame death and the grave and showed us the way to everlasting life with our Lord and our Creator. So, if there is any silver-lining in the tragic number of deaths in our world this past year, it's that we trust because of Christ Jesus, death is not the end. As we proclaim in our funeral services, the words of the apostle Paul say, “For if we are united in Jesus in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with Christ in a resurrection like his.”

I hope you all have a blessed Easter and take extra comfort this year in the promise of eternal life, both now and forever. God bless you abundantly with love!

In Christ's Name,

Pastor Jeff

Maundy Thursday Worship

Thursday, April 1, 6:30 p.m.

Online & In-Person

This special service includes holy communion and the traditional stripping of the altar, symbolic of the abandonment of Jesus by his disciples and the stripping of Jesus by the soldiers before his crucifixion. It also represents the humiliation of Jesus and the consequences of sin as a preparation for the celebration of new life. Please join us for this special service!

Good Friday Service

Friday, April 2, 6:30 p.m.

Online & In-Person

Our Good Friday service is a special service that walks through all the details of the final hours of Jesus' life through reading of scripture, candles, and special music. We will also use many visuals that will call our attention to the significance of what Jesus did for us on the cross. This service can be a very meaningful experience for those present and so we hope you will join us!

Easter Services

Sunday, April 4,

8:30 & 10 a.m.

Online & In-Person

Join us as we celebrate our Lord's resurrection! These are traditionally our largest services of the year. In order to maintain social distancing, our sanctuary seating is limited to about 70 people per service, so we are working on setting up the technology to have overflow seating in the dining hall downstairs with a video feed playing on two TVs as well. You can also join us on Facebook Live or watch a recording of the service after the initial broadcast. We hope you will join us!

Crosses We Don't Choose<sup>1</sup>

Then Jesus told them, "... take up their cross and follow me." Matthew 16:24b

Dear Members and Friends of the Northwest Synod of Wisconsin,

My friend Julie's mom had dementia. Julie picked up that cross and carried it as her beloved mother faded away. Paul was in second grade when he was diagnosed with diabetes. It was a cross he would carry for the rest of his life. Erica's drug addiction was a cross she and her family carried for years until she found sobriety. They were all crosses they didn't choose.

Jesus carried his cross on the road to his crucifixion. Along the way he falls, and a man named Simon of Cyrene<sup>2</sup> is forced to pick up Jesus' cross and carry it the rest of the way to Calvary. Simon was most likely a reluctant cross bearer. Most of us are reluctant cross bearers. We don't choose the pain or suffering we've been dealt, and yet we carry the load. We don't choose to carry another person's cross when they are too weak to carry it themselves, but we are at times compelled by love to do so.

This month marks the one year anniversary of the pandemic. It is a cross that we've all carried to one degree or another. For some it has been an inconvenience and for others a heavy burden of suffering and profound grief. Theologically there is no way to put a positive spin on the coronavirus or 2020. It has been a cross we didn't choose. The strain of carrying this cross is evident in our country and congregations. We are all weary of it.

On Palm/Passion Sunday and Good Friday we are drawn into the story of Jesus' arrest, trial, and death. We walk alongside him in the crowd as he carries his cross, our cross, compelled by love. We walk with a suffering Jesus straining under the weight of this cross, stumbling, falling, getting back up and finally letting go, letting another carry it. Jesus knew pain in his human body, and so Jesus knows our every weakness. Jesus himself was beaten, knew suffering and was unable to carry the weight of this cross. He falls to the ground under the weight of his love for us.

As a church we invite others to walk in the way of Jesus knowing that they are carrying crosses they didn't choose for themselves. We invite others to walk in the way of Jesus because as a community of faith we shoulder the burden and carry it all together. We help another carry their cross out of love. We are Simon of Cyrene.

Maybe that is what this past year has taught us; that we need each other; we aren't alone. We've been isolated, quarantined, but not alone. We can't take our congregations for granted. We need our faith communities and the relationships with other believers because we can't carry our own crosses. We follow the way of Jesus together bearing our neighbor's crosses out of love.

It is in the cross that Jesus carried and on which he was crucified that we can know the love of God and salvation. This is Luther's Theology of the Cross. It is in the crosses that we as a community of faith carry together as we follow in the way of Jesus that we too see and know the love God.

Dear friends of the Northwest Synod of Wisconsin, I am grateful for you, that during the pandemic, we were able to walk in the way of Jesus together. May you each know the joy of Easter! Christ is Risen. He is risen indeed.

Bishop Laurie Skow-Anderson
